

Summer Reading and Bible Resources

Link to Fairfax County Summer Reading Program. All details listed on the website. Program starts June 16th. Here is the link:

<https://research.fairfaxcounty.gov/reading-challenges/summer-reading>

Free Links for audio books:

1. Fairfax County Public Library:

<https://research.fairfaxcounty.gov/early-literacy/tumblebooks>

2. Youtube.com (Type in the name of the book to see if it is available)
3. The good and the beautiful <https://goodandbeautifulbooklist.com/>

Links to summer reading lists:

Preschool: 1,000 books to read before starting kindergarten chrome-extension://efaidnbnmnnibpcajpcglclefindmkaj/<https://1000booksbeforekindergarten.org/wp-content/uploads/Books-Your-Child-Should-Hear-Before-Kindergarten-1.pdf>

Elementary School:

1. The Good and the Beautiful. Great website for books that teach good values
<https://goodandbeautifulbooklist.com/book-list/>
2. Christianbook.com. <https://www.christianbook.com>
Great source of books, you can search by age group.
3. Focus on the Family offers many magazines and books for students by age group. <https://store.focusonthefamily.com/>

Bible resources for the summer

1. Adventures in Odyssey is a subscription based program. Each episode is 25 minutes and contains a Biblical principle. These are great to listen to on long car trips. <https://www.adventuresinodyssey.com/>
2. Keys for Kids is a daily short Bible devotion for kids. It is free.
<https://www.keysforkids.org>
3. Hello Bible is a subscription based program. It provides children with Bible stories, crafts, and activities. <https://hellobible.org>